SAMUEL GONOTSKY
American Checker Champion

Dedication

In appreciation of the high state of perfection attained in the art of playing the game of checkers, this Seventh American Tournament book is respectfully dedicated to the late Samuel Gonotsky.

PREFACE

FOR the success of the Seventh American Checker Championship Tournament we are indebted to the liberal publicity given by the entire Chicago Press and The Chicago Association of Commerce, the whole-hearted support of the management of the Morrison Hotel and the financial support of our patrons.

For the special annotations by Samuel Gonotsky and Jesse B. Hanson to game 10-15, 22-18 A we are indebted to Mr. Carl M. White.

For recording the minutes we are indebted to Mr. C. A. Hawkins.

Twenty checker experts entered the tournament, fully a dozen of them among America's best, featuring the tournament with considerable improvement and correction of published play and playing no less than nine extra game sessions.

In publishing this work we have endeavored to give a practical history of the tournament, avoiding repetition, having it complete and compact, keeping down the cost and ready before interest waned; this we trust will justify our hopes for a large sale.

THE SEVENTH AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIP CHECKER TOURNAMENT

The Seventh American Championship Checker Tournament was first conceived in New York in 1924. There, at the American Checker Association meeting, April 29th to May 24th, it was voted (Waterhouse-Ginsberg) "that the Executive Committee endeavor to arrange to hold the Seventh American Tournament at Detroit, Mich., in the spring of 1926." This, however, was never carried out. At the following meeting of the American Checker Association in New York, February, 1927, it was voted (Dossett-O'Grady) "that the Seventh American Tournament be held starting the first Monday in March, 1929, or as near that date as the executive committee can arrange." The International Match Games book, page 17, states that the place selected was Chicago, Illinois. I am certain that Chicago was not selected by vote, but rather the opinion favored this city but not voted on.

Early in 1928 I received a letter from Mr. E. H. Greene, Honorary President, requesting me to write to the officers of the Executive Committee concerning the Seventh American Tournament, asking their pleasure and arrange to acquire funds to hold same. Immediately letters were sent to all officers of the American Checker Association asking their views on the following questions: Preferred place and second choice for holding next tournament, entry fees for same, barred openings, if or if not desired; Gonotsky vs. Stewart match; Gonotsky vs. Banks match; Banks vs. Stewart match; any other suggestions, also organization of the American Checker Association. Most of the replies received were indifferent as to place selected, seeming more concerned over the success of tournament than the site, and most of the officers wanted to include the barred openings. The question of barred openings had also been submitted to all the members of the International Team, as this question was to be left to them. However, after summing up their answers we found them unable to decide this, as we had six voting to include barred openings and six against them.

During the winter of 1929 the question of postponing the tournament came up between the officers of the American Checker Association. Some contended that it should be postponed, others that the matter was already settled as to time, and therefore if a place were available the tournament should be played as per vote in New York City. The controversy became intense and as there was no headway made, the plans of the various officials were submitted for vote to the members of A. C. A. and officers of the Executive Committee, requesting them to reply within a week, for if the Association desired the tournament held in March it was necessary to lose no time. The letters were all sent February 5th, and on February 14th all the replies were submitted to the members of the American Checker Association residing in Chicago for consideration. All of the replies received were in favor of the plan as eventually carried out, not a single one favoring postponement. It was then unanimously decided to hold the Seventh American Tournament in Chicago March 11-23, or until finished, in the Rose Room of the Morrison Hotel.

Mr. W. E. Thomis was unanimously selected to occupy the chair during the meet. At the meetings it was voted (Ketchum-Rosenband) that the Heffner two-life plan be used during the tournament. Owing to the fact that none of the players present desired the barred openings be used, the matter was allowed to come to a vote (Ellis-White), and they were voted out. It was then moved (Ketchum-Whalen) that six games constitute a round. The ballot split even and Mr. Thomis decided it carried. The various playing committees were then appointed by Mr. Thomis. It was then voted (Ellis-Whalen) to resort to the 11-man style of ballot after 10 drawn games were played.

ADDRESS OF MR. THOMIS AT LAST MEETING

Gentlemen, we have now reached the close of our tournament, and we should now hold our business meeting. We have been waiting until we could have as many present at the meeting as possible. There is one important thing that I think should come up first, and that is the endorsement of our Secretary, Mr. Seelbach. I don't think there is any question as to his worthiness, honor, energy or efficiency, for he has proved those things by this nice smooth, agreeable tourney that we have had here. From a personal standpoint he has, as you all know, had to undergo great stress in carrying this tournament through. I don't think there is a member of our Association here that does not know to what I refer. Notwithstanding that, just see how well this tournament has gone on, the high character of those who have entered into it, the wonderful location that he provided for us here in this great Morrison Hotel, all of which he has carried through without one bit of help, so far as I know, and I think I know, for I have been pretty well on the inside of things. Upon the Vice-President, Mr. Reynolds, coming into the presidency, he made the request directly upon Mr. Seelbach that he hand in his resignation as Secretary of the American Checker Association. I know, for I saw the letter. It seemed to me a very strange sort of procedure, and I wondered on what pretext or on what grounds it could be asked. It finally developed that the first point was the disagreement between our Secretary and the Treasurer of the Association, and, secondly, through some correspondence Mr. Reynolds may have had, the honesty—absolutely the honesty—of our Secretary was questioned. I do not say this without knowing what I am talking about, for I saw the correspondence. So the point that I want to bring out here is that we have full faith in the honesty of our Secretary so far as any financial matters are concerned, or his responsibility financially; that we have an abiding faith in his honesty and integrity, and we commend him for the energy he has shown in connection with this tournament, and for the excellent judgment he has shown in selecting this place for holding the tournament here in Chicago, in keeping with the endorsement of the American Checker Association made two years ago. Unless someone wishes to say something further, we will take a vote upon that resolution. Thereupon Mr. Ellis made a motion that the resolution as outlined by the chair be adopted by a rising vote. Mr. Ellis' motion was seconded by Mr. Duffy, and a rising vote was taken, which showed an adoption by a unanimous vote. Mr. Seelbach replied as follows: "I wish to thank the boys for their faith in me and their show of appreciation. I really did not expect this resolution. I feel that I am being given too much credit so far as energy is concerned, but will try and make good at future tournaments if I am still secretary. At present I have nothing further to say, but again to thank you all."

Ketchum-Ryan: That a tournament be held in Chicago in 1933, known as the "World's Checker Tournament," carried, with Mr. Ketchum chairman of such committee.

Ellis-Hoelzer: That a vote of thanks be extended to Mrs. Hannah J. Lannin for her financial assistance given the tournament. Carried.

Seelbach-Gonotsky: That a suitable resolution voicing the regrets of the American Checker Association of the death of its President, Mr.

Will H. Tyson, and extending the sympathy of the meeting to the bereaved family. Carried.

Ellis-Ryan: That the games played in the tournament be given to Mr. Seelbach to do with as he might see fit. Carried unanimously.

Gonotsky-Hanson: That a vote of appreciation and thanks be extended to the management of the Morrison Hotel for the favors shown to the tournament, and in furnishing the pleasant quarters in which to hold it. Carried.

The question of officers was then brought up, Mr. Thomis opening the discussion as follows: Now, I think we have covered everything except the election of officers. The question is, shall we elect new officers? I feel that we should have some way of impressing the American Checker Association that we have some power—that we have really a powerful organization here. We have endorsed Mr. Seelbach as Secretary. Now shall we let him continue until the next meeting? Shall we re-elect him? And, shall we have another Treasurer or shall we keep Mr. White? Those are points that should be settled here tonight. You see there really is no Treasurer of the American Checker Association. Mr. Seelbach was duly elected and qualified as Secretary, but there has been some question about Mr. White. There should be no question about it. He was elected by a small number, and I think we ought, here, tonight, elect Mr. White as Treasurer. Thereupon Mr. Ellis made a motion in keeping with the chair, which motion was duly seconded, put to a vote and unanimously carried. Mr. White accepted the office of Treasurer, stating among other things that he was an enthusiastic fan and that some day he hoped to be as good a player as Mr. Gonotsky, which remark provoked a round of laughter. It was then suggested by Mr. Ketchum that this meeting endorse the Cedar Point Tournament. Mr. Thomis, as chairman of the meeting, stated that the meeting endorsed the Cedar Point Tournament. No formal resolution, however, was put forth. Thereupon Mr. Ellis stated that he thought it only right and proper that this meeting nominate and elect a President of the American Checker Association, inasmuch as Mr. Reynolds did not seem to be working in harmony with the Secretary and Treasurer, and he proposed Mr. Thomis as the logical candidate for President. Mr. Thomis remonstrated, saying that he did not wish the office under any consideration, and that he thought it very impolite to go through the form of electing a President, as he considered that Mr. Reynolds was in reality the President of the American Checker Association and that he should be so recognized. There was considerable discussion pro and con on the subject of electing Mr. Thomis as President, but the final outcome of it all was that Mr. Ellis, acting as Chairman pro tem, put the motion that Mr. Thomis be elected as President of the American Checker Association, which motion carried, though far from unanimously, Ketchum, Scott and others interposing. Mr. Thomis, with apparent reluctance, accepted the nomination and election as President, stating that he would consider himself such until another election was held at Cedar Point, and that his purpose in accepting the office was to do all he possibly could to straighten out whatever differences there might be between players of the East and this locality, and that he would be subject to the will of the Cedar Point meeting.

E. J. SEELBACH,
Secretary, American Checker Association.

BIOGRAPHIES OF THE PLAYERS

SAMUEL GONOTSKY

Samuel Gonotsky, first prize and American Checker Championship, was born in Russia 26 years ago, but was reared and educated in America. His impersonating The Man of Mystery, "Ajeeb," in the Automaton Checker Player, later defeating every player of note in New York and Brooklyn in match and tournament play; his winning of the Sixth and Seventh American tournaments; his stake match with Louis C. Ginsberg; his match with Michael Lieber without preparation; his winning of the eleven-man style of checkers tournament, thus winning the championship at that style of playing; his record of thirteen wins and no losses in the International match, and his record in over two years preceding the Seventh American tournament, of nearly 250 games in match and tournament playing without a loss, place him at the very height of checker achievement. Analysts have found very few flaws in his games of recent years, except possibly at the eleven-man style, where his winning of games in which he was in losing positions show cross-board ability of the highest order.

He died April 5, in Hurley Hospital, Flint, Michigan, of pleural tuberculosis, following Michael Lieber, his chum, fellow worker and opponent, who died in the same hospital March 23.

JESSE B. HANSON

Jesse B. Hanson, second prize, champion of the Pacific Coast, a member of the American International Team, Man of Mystery in "Ajeeb," winner of many stake matches. Jordan considered him the equal of any player in America; victor over Newell Banks in Fourth American tournament, where he landed in third place, found himself in fine form, winning a game from Samuel Gonotsky, the first to do so in over two years.

WILLIE RYAN

Willie Ryan, third prize, the "Bronx Comet"; traveling checker player; has pronounced ideas concerning certain aspects of the game; age 22; winner of many stake matches; just fresh from Florida, where he won the Master's Diamond Medal by winning the Master's tournament three times, being the first one to accomplish this feat. Mr. Ryan challenges to play anybody a match of checkers any time, anywhere and for any amount that can be gotten together, including his own money.

PRESTON H. KETCHUM

Preston H. Ketchum, fourth prize, prolific author, checker editor, authority, match player with an enviable record, former Chicago, Ill., and Illinois State champion, chairman of the World's Checker tournament, Chicago, 1933. Played three extra game sessions in the present tournament.

A. M. PETECK—W. E. THOMIS

Fifth and sixth prizes were divided between A. M. Peteck and W. E. Thomis. Mr. Thomis is President of the American Checker Association, Vice-President of the South Side Checker Club, a most liberal patron; plays with much skill, but business interests prevent him from serious match playing; participates in tournaments whenever possible. The game he won from Louis C. Ginsberg in Third American Tourney is often a matter of discussion. Mr. Peteck is a local player with considerable promise of becoming one of our leading exponents, finishing in front of a number of noted experts.

BASIL G. CASE

Basil G. Case, seventh prize, Illinois State champion, Chicago, Ill., City champion; born in Battle Creek, Mich.; age 20; has been playing serious checkers about five years, under tutelage of Messrs. Duffy and Ketchum; tied in Master's tournament in Flint, Mich., last winter with Michael Lieber, in which event he won three games against that expert. Mr. Case was given a good chance to win the tournament, being picked by many to do so. However, he was not at his best, being under the handicap of having to do his full day's work in the forenoon in order to participate and this with long sessions played havoc with his chances. "Teetzel" credits him with the best checker performance in America in 1928.

JOS. H. SCOTT—C. E. WELLS

Eighth and ninth prizes were divided between Messrs. Jos. H. Scott and C. E. Wells. Mr. Wells has been a serious contender for local honors for several years and his win against Mr. Case is a fine example of his skill. Mr. Scott is well known to the checker fraternity; is winner of a match with George M. Tanner; is former Chicago champion; a liberal patron, and usually participates in tournaments whenever possible.

MINOR TOURNAMENT

PATRICK WHALEN

Patrick Whalen, first minor prize, a Chicago expert, checker editor, co-annotator of Second American tournament book, familiar with a vast amount of published play; practically lives on and for checkers. His play in the present tournament is both brilliant and indifferent, although he won the minor tournament "breezing" along in good style.

PETER McDONALD

Peter McDonald, second minor prize, strictly a cross-board player, winner of several games against Newell W. Banks in simultaneous playing. Had he not overlooked the jump in his game with Mr. Scott he would have been on equal terms with Mr. Scott at that time. Mr. McDonald has been very successful in match play.

HARLAND RICHARDS

Harland Richards, third minor prize, Illinois Down-State champion; found keen competition but managed to "nose" in third after losing his first round to Mr. Hoelzer. He resides in Champaign, Ill.

W. R. HOELZER—LEM ELLIS

Fourth and fifth prizes were divided between Mr. W. R. Hoelzer and Mr. Lem Ellis. Mr. Ellis is champion of the National Vaudeville Artists' Association, a very strong cross-board player and also familiar with much published play. He was tutored by the late Alfred Jordan and Jesse B. Hanson; plays in tournaments whenever possible. Mrs. Ellis, his wife, is also a strong checker player and among vaudeville artists is "The Lady Who Knows." Mr. Hoelzer, one of Chicago's high school stars, is giving considerable attention to published play and this, with the experience he is receiving at the South Side Checker Club, should make of him a finished player in a comparatively short time.

F. W. KITCHELL

F. W. Kitchell, sixth prize; resides in Oil City, Pa.; a natural player and familiar with much published play, as shown by his games in the present tournament. He is under the disadvantage of not having enough keen practice. Is never beaten without a struggle.

THOMAS J. REYNOLDS

Thomas J. Reynolds, seventh prize, Pittsburgh, Pa. Like Mr. Kitchell, is handicapped with limited competition. Some of Mr. Reynolds' games are fine examples of checkers.

CARL M. WHITE

Carl M. White, President of the South Side Checker Club, Treasurer of the American Checker Association; liberal patron, and "a fan right"; has been giving considerable attention to checkers for several years and is making considerable advancement, as shown by some of his games; he is the possessor of a large checker library.

I. ROSENBAND

Mr. I. Rosenband entered the tournament but business prevented him from finishing; is a strong local player and serious contender in tournaments; a liberal patron.

F. H. HUTCHINSON

Mr. F. H. Hutchinson resides in Libertyville, Ill., and is champion of that district; strong natural player and fairly well posted on published play; like Mr. Rosenband, business prevented him from completing in the present tournament.

M. POLONSKY

M. Polonsky, age 17, high school star; always interested in checkers but playing serious only a short time; was runner-up in High School championship 1927-28; we expect to hear more of him in the future.

Annotations to game A by Samuel Gonotsky and Jesse B. Hanson.

A At 4th move, best threatening 17-13 and cramp the Black double corner.

B At 5th move, to stop 17-13.

C At 10th move, if 24-20, then 3-8 gives Black an equal game.

D At 20th move, best for if 25-21 or 26-22 Black gets a good game by 8-11.

E At 23rd move, the position is now probably a White Win, if 12-16, 15-8, 3-12, 24-19, 1-5, 26-22*, 9-13, 18-9, 5-14, 22-18*, 14-17, 25-22, 17-26, 31-22, 2-6, 18-14. White Wins.

F At 36th move add *.

G At 39th move, 2-6 also loses by 8-3, 6-9, 2-7, 10-14, 7-10, 14-7, 10-15, 17-26, 18-14, 9-18, 15-31. White Wins.

This is the first game Mr. Gonotsky lost in over two years during which time some 250 match and Tournament games were played.—E. J. S.
